Legislative Sessions Ballroom A7-A11

Due to scheduling constraints of speakers, panels may be presented in a different order than published. Updates will be provided during the session.

Tackling Retail Theft in Local Communities

A spike in retail theft and violent smash-and-grab robberies have generated renewed interest by the Legislature in helping local governments keep their communities safe. This panel will focus on pending legislation that seeks to address organized retail theft, repeat offenders, sentencing enhancements, and aggregation of multiple incidents of theft. Additionally, possible reforms to Proposition 47 will be discussed.

Addressing Homelessness: The Case for Permanent Ongoing Funding

This panel will review the results of the Cal Cities 2024 homelessness survey that underscores the need for the state to invest $3 billion in ongoing, permanent funding to prevent and reduce homelessness and boost affordable housing. Hear from local leaders as they share their unique perspectives. From innovative housing initiatives to comprehensive support services, these leaders will offer valuable insights into what has worked effectively, and the lessons learned along the way.

Threats to Local Fiscal Sustainability, and What You Need to Know

This panel will feature leading experts discussing recent developments and threats to California city revenues. Learn about legal developments, ballot measures, and pending legislation that will affect your agency's finances.

5:00 - 7:00 p.m.

Legislative Reception sponsored by CAL CITIES PARTNER Cafeteria 15L, 1116 15th Street

In partnership with the California State Association of Counties, please join us for an evening reception. Relax and enjoy some light hors d'oeuvres and refreshments while networking with your city and county colleagues.

Adjust Your Attitude - Resolve Communication Complications

Communication skills are our most important yet least trained professional skill. Artificial intelligence, social media, and automated technologies may never replace the interpersonal components of leadership, influence, and engagement. Unfortunately, today, we are experiencing fewer positive experiences when we engage with people who have personalities colder than a laptop cover left outside in the winter. The art of communication mastery must be reshaped and revisited. Don't assume there is one communication style that fits all. To be successful, we must stop treating others how we want to be treated. We must learn how to treat others the way they want to be treated. "Adjust Your Attitude" will give you the fuel and tools to impact how interpersonal communication skills positively influence relationships and results.

AB 764 Changed the Rules (Again): Prepare Now for Districting and Redistricting
Ballroom A7-A11

2023's AB 764 expanded the state FAIR MAPS Act, making the time-consuming and often difficult process of districting even more complex. The new law imposes significant outreach requirements, new reporting requirements, restrictive mapping criteria, new definitions of "communities of interest," and a major increase in legal liability. Join experts from National Demographics Corporation, Nielsen Merksamer and Tripepi Smith as they share their experiences helping cities through the districting and redistricting process while navigating complicated state requirements. Attendees will also learn more about the legal, demographic and outreach nuances of AB 764, and how early preparation will be vital for a successful districting process, whether in response to California Voting Rights Act demands or the upcoming 2031 redistricting process.

Moderator: Ryder Todd Smith, President, Tripepi Smith

Speakers: Douglas Mark Johnson, President, National Demographics Corporation
Christopher E. Skinnell, Partner, Nielsen Merksamer Parrinello Gross & Leoni, LLP

A Collaborative Framework to Addressing Homelessness: Solano County and its Seven Cities, United Through a Regional Homelessness Policy Board
Ballroom A7-A11

In an unprecedented move, Solano County and its constituent cities have forged a unified front, establishing a regional policy board that includes county supervisors and city elected officials, with the support of technical staff, dedicated to combating homelessness through collective action. This collaborative effort aims to consolidate resources, expertise, and strategies to implement a comprehensive regional homelessness strategic plan. Through this unified voice, Solano County seeks to garner the resources necessary to address the multifaceted issues contributing to homelessness. Panelists will share insights into the development of the regional policy board, the formulation of a comprehensive homelessness strategic plan, advocacy efforts for increased funding, the establishment of a homeless navigation center, and the utilization of advanced software for data tracking. Discover how this collaborative approach can provide a blueprint for other regions grappling with similar challenges.

Moderator: Alma Hernandez, Mayor, Suisun City

Speakers: Mitch Mashburn, Supervisor, Solano County

Rozzana Verder-Aliga, CAP Solano JPA Board, Council Member, Vallejo

A Look into the Future with HF&H Consultants
Ballroom A2-A5

For over 30 years, HF&H has helped more than 400 local governments have successful solid waste, water, and wastewater programs. To continue this practice, HF&H tracks key legislative developments, industry changes, and anticipated horizon issues. Some of the most pressing questions facing the solid waste and recycling industry and cities today include: What are the downstream impacts of SB 54 (extended producer responsibility) on franchises and what relief might ratepayers see? What will the transition to zero emissions fleets look like and what strategy should local agencies use for implementation? How will clean tech and AI impact the solid waste and recycling system? How do we create sustainable government funding in the face of pending litigation surrounding Prop 218 and 26? This session will answer these questions and focus on the impact to local solid waste systems from the continued march of court decisions and ballot measures that are tightening up Propositions 218 and 26.

Moderator and Speaker: Rob Hilton, President, HF&H Consultants, LLC

Speakers: Felisia Castañeda, Project Manager, HF&H Consultants, LLC

Philip Mainolfi, Sr. Project Manager, HF&H Consultants, LLC

Creating Social Connection (2:15 - 2:35 p.m.)

This session aims to convene mayors and council members across California to discuss ways to foster social connection and address social isolation and loneliness in our communities. Hear from the City of Irvine on how it has been combatting the issue with its youth and seniors.

Speaker: Farrah N. Khan, Mayor, Irvine

Small Town, Big Aspirations: Leveraging Interagency Collaborations to Address Complex Infrastructure Challenges (2:40 - 3:00 p.m.)

Navigating the world of local government can seem daunting, especially when it comes to transportation planning. While many communities have the funds to fill a pothole, small communities often lack the staff or resources to tackle increasingly expensive public infrastructure maintenance and repair on their own. Based on a recent case study in the Town of Fairfax, this session designed for newly elected officials unpacks the critical role interagency collaborations can have in surmounting seemingly intractable infrastructure challenges.

Speaker: Chance Cutrano, Council Member, Fairfax

Attaining Equity Through Inclusive Engagement (3:05 - 3:25 p.m.)

This session will cover ways city leaders can support inclusive engagement efforts. The speaker will discuss current best practices and ways leaders can support staff and provide an opportunity for leaders to ask pressing questions about how to promote DEI in engagement efforts and think through challenges.

Speaker: Ruben Abrica, Council Member, East Palo Alto

California - Leading the Way on Generative AI in Local Government Ballroom A7-A11

This session aims to explore the rapidly evolving landscape of generative artificial intelligence (GenAI) and its implications for subnational governments, including cities, states, and provinces. Drawing from the 'Carnegie Endowment for International Peace's California Working Guide on Subnational Practices in AI Policy,' the session will delve into the challenges and opportunities presented by GenAI and Large Language Models in policymaking. It will explicate how California cities collaborate with international local governments, facilitated by Carnegie. Participants will discover how cities are actively using AI and will have the opportunity to learn, contribute to, and engage in the development of an international working guide for the local government use of artificial intelligence.

Moderator: David Graham, Chief Innovation Officer, Carlsbad

Speaker: Ian Klaus, Founding Director, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace

The Vital Importance of Local Enforcement in the Cannabis Industry Ballroom A2-A5

Regulatory compliance is a vital component of virtually every aspect of the cannabis industry. Enforcing cannabis regulation is not just important for the safety and security of the community, it also helps protect the nascent cannabis industry. Under California's local-control system, cannabis operators are required to obtain and maintain licenses at two separate levels –state and local – each with their own set of regulations. Creating regulations and enforcing them requires specialized training and dedicated staff. Understanding the nuances of compliance with applicable cannabis regulation is a vital component in creating code compliance for the cannabis industry.

Moderator and Speaker: Zachary Scalzo, Of Counsel, Best Best & Krieger, LLP

Speakers: Veronica E. Goedhart, Director, Palm Springs

Denise Marie Hansen, Partner and Director of Municipal Code Enforcement, Best Best & Krieger, LLP
Mitchell Nabhan, Code Supervisor, Palm Springs

Community Engagement as a DEI Strategy
Ballroom A7-A11

Learn how Livermore has leveraged a rich history of community engagement and coordination between agencies (specifically, the city, school district, and parks and recreation district) to reach those in the community who have traditionally been harder to engage. To advance diversity, equity and inclusion objectives, rethink your city's engagement strategies by meeting people at a time and place most comfortable to them and promoting healthy dialogue. Learn how to best deploy tools including online education, community academies, youth and senior outreach, translation, subject specific town hall meetings, bilingual publications and videos, as well as social media posts to highlight community partnerships, local businesses, projects, and employees.

Moderator: Stephanie Egidio, Assistant to the City Manager, Livermore

Speakers: Mat Fuzie, General Manager, Livermore Area Recreation and Park District
Marianna Marysheva, City Manager, Livermore
Chris Van Schaack, Superintendent, Livermore Valley Joint Unified School District

Mastering Your Memory

The human brain possesses an incredible amount of power to store and recall information. Unfortunately, most people are never taught how to fully access this ability. In this fun and highly engaging keynote, attendees will learn unique and exciting methods to increase their memory skills to extraordinary levels. Most importantly, this session will teach you how to use these concepts in daily life. Instantly recalling people's names, giving presentations without notes, increased focus, and improved mental organization are just a few of the practical benefits attendees will take away from this session.

Closing Remarks: Debbie S. Baker, First Vice President, Mayors and Council Members Department and Council Member, La Palma

Keynote Speaker: Tyler Enslin, Professional Speaker, Business Owner, Tyler Enslin International
